

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

Word from the Jr. R. Y. P. U.
Our work is interesting and membership growing. Several have been added to roll the past few weeks.

Our time of meeting is 3 o'clock Sunday p. m. This gives the members ample time to do their visiting and riding after having spent an hour profitably and pleasantly together.

We have a wide awake band of workers from whom we may reasonably expect much.

Our attendance has not been what we have desired and prayed for, but the few are loyal and true, willing to make any sacrifice to help our work along. They are boys and girls who will count in the Master's service when they are men and women. Give us more such young people between the ages of twelve and sixteen years and we will give you a R. Y. P. U. in Snyder that means much toward development for future usefulness of our boys and girls.

We are headquarters for fresh butter.

MILITARY STYLES NOW

APPEAR AMONG OTHERS

Tub Frocks of Linen and White Georgette for Hot Weather Nov.

ettes in Bathing Dresses

New York, July 27.—It was only natural to expect that in these times of war, women's clothes would show the military influence, but somehow, there have not been quite as many military styles on the whole as we would have thought. Here and there, however, sprinkled among the distinctly feminine frocks, some strictly military frocks appear. One of the most successful dresses on this order is the frock with the cape pictured here. Capes have been rampant ever since the spring and early summer, and now they are attached to dresses and have become quite an important feature of the fashions.

A Military Dress with Silk-Lined Cape.

Much of the charm of these capes is due to the pretty linings which they reveal when they are blown open by the wind. Patterned silks with flowers or dots are employed for the linings as well as plain colors in shades contrasting with the dress material. The dress in the sketch is of blue gabardine with the popular coin-dotted foulard for the lining of the cape. The blue foulard with white or yellow dots is very effective for these linings.

Linen Tub Frocks.

Now, that the warm weather is really and truly here, the cool tub frock comes to take the place of heavier dresses. Linen is just as much a favorite this year as ever, but the novelty about it is that it is combined with voile or organdy. The usual trimming is heavy stitching, braid or embroidery. Dresses entirely of linen unrelieved by anything but perhaps a collar of organdy, are also considered very smart. One of the new one-piece models, especially suited to misses is illustrated. Like so many of the simple useful styles, this one is slipped on over the head. There is a belt, front and back to hold in the fullness of the waist, and there are the inevitable pockets at the sides, but these are placed on the side panels of the dress, making somewhat of a difference from the usual styles.

In the white dresses for afternoon there is nothing daintier than those of Georgette crepe, trimmed with white chalk beads or white silk soutache braid. In one rather elaborate model the waist was literally braided all over and the effect was very rich.

Pale pink Georgette trimmed in the same way with pink or white beads or pink braid is just as much favored as the white dresses. This particular shade of pale pink that is so popular at present makes charming evening dresses in soft satin. I have seen some very short sleeves of pink tulle to match, and others in which very fine creamy lace is used to make the waist or sleeves. Low waisted models with soft clinging draperies at the sides are very new but the normal waist line is still very strong, and now, there are even rumors of the Empire line coming back to favor again.

Novelties in Bathing Dresses

In our attempts to escape the mid-summer heat, many are taking refuge in the cooling waters of the ocean. Bathing dresses are consequently in great demand just now. To vary the eternal black satin and navy blue taffeta, some of the latest costumes are of dark red jersey cloth. Dark red and blue rubberized cloth was a combination recently seen. Other novelties include black velvet suits and blue taffetas, trimmed with yellow or bright red satin.

Nowadays, the beach wrap is an important part of the haberdashery equipment. Very attractive wraps are made of blue or rose-colored jersey cloth cut in circular shape with the fastening on one shoulder. The edges of these are faced with a contrasting color and embroidered in wool. Figured silks and rubberized cloths are also employed as much as the wool jersey.

Silk and Wool Sweaters

The new sweaters made of wool and silk appear to be a trifle shorter than they have been wearing them in the past. There are slip over sweaters which are sometimes worn like waists with white silk skirts, pleated or plain. The favorite colors are rose, blue and green, also yellow and the cool looking corn color. The sweaters opened down the front and belted with soft sashes have not been forsaken for the slip over models. There is a certain grace and softness about them that makes them ever desirable. No summer wardrobe is really complete without a couple of these charming sweaters, whether one spends the summer in the mountains, at the seashore or even in the city. They may be of shetland wool, all silk or the silk and wool mixtures. White Angora sailor collars and cuffs on the colored wool sweaters are very popular, and at the same time becoming.

LIFE OF TWO MONTHS

OLD BABY SAVED

Dr. Tinkle's Baby Bowel Remedy Did The Work.

"My baby, only two months old, took with a severe case of Summer Complaint," so stated C. J. Forequrean of Winters, Texas. "I tried different remedies, but the child got worse. I sent for a doctor. The medicine he gave seemed to have no effect. It looked as though my child would die. I became alarmed. The physician told me to try Dr. Tinkle's Baby Bowel Remedy as it was highly recommended for bowel disorders among children. I got a bottle and gave it to my baby according to directions. My baby began to improve at once and got sound and well. Do you blame me for praising Dr. Tinkle's Baby Bowel Remedy? I now keep it among my household remedies and give it at the slightest sign of bowel disorder among my children, and it has never failed to give results."

Watch your babies in hot weather and keep their bowels regulated and digestion good by giving them Dr. Tinkle's Baby Bowel Remedy. Prevents fermentation and promotes digestion. An excellent teething and Colic remedy. It is equally as good for diarrhoea in adults.
